To whom it may concern,

Working with Jarrod Behringer was very easy and it was always very simple to get our questions answered. We received our chairs in a timely manner and they were easy to assemble. The chairs give our coaches' office a Division I college sports program feel with a professional standard we have never had with previous office chairs.

Everyone that comes into our office remarks how amazing the chairs look with the personalization of our logo, and how the chairs change the feel of the office.

Thanks DreamSeat and thanks Jarrod!
